AREA OF EXPERTISE

As an Associate on the Colliers International | Minneapolis-St. Paul Brokerage Services Team, Erin Hoeg provides leasing and sales services to tenants in the Twin Cities office market. As a Twin Cities native, Erin's extensive knowledge of the metro area and marketplace enable her to make sound recommendations and provide keen insight for her clients.

Erin's ability to cultivate lasting client relationships and be quick on her feet to provide strategic solutions make her a valuable asset to her seasoned tenant representative office team.

Erin is always up for a challenge and isn't afraid to step in and offer her opinion. She is very detail-oriented and ensures every client, regardless of size, receives the same level of excellent customer service.

Erin earned her Leadership and Management Real Estate degree from the University of St. Thomas. While in college, she was a member of the Delta Sigma Pi Business Fraternity. Erin also coached the girl's lacrosse team at The Blake School and was a Real Estate Development Intern for Falcon Ridge Partners. Post-graduation, Erin worked in account management and strategic sales.

Outside of the commercial real estate industry, Erin loves traveling, fitness and drinking coffee.
